

Valerie J. Van Meter
Senior Vice President and Director of Minority & Women Inclusion, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

Valerie is senior vice president and Director of Minority and Women Inclusion for the 7th Federal Reserve District. She leads the Central Bank Services division, which includes Discount Window Lending, Payments System Risk, Reserve Accounting, and Statistical and Financial Reporting. In addition, she has responsibility for the Bank's Office of Diversity and Inclusion; the Federal Reserve System's Senior Leadership Development Initiative; and is a member of the Chicago Bank's Management Committee.

Valerie has been with the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago since 1993, holding various management positions in Central Bank Services, the Customer Relations and Support Office, and the Detroit Branch. She also recently served as the Bank's Chief Financial Officer. From 1984 through 1993, she held various official positions with California Federal Bank and First Interstate Bank of California. Valerie began her career at the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in 1978.

Valerie holds a BA in Economics from the University of Michigan, is a graduate of the Stonier Graduate School of Banking, and holds an MBA from the University of Chicago. She has been a director for Junior Achievement of Chicago since 2004, a member of the Honorary Advisory Board of the Student Veterans of American since 2012, and a member of Chicago United's Leaders Council since 2008.